Revenue Streams

Currently, Dhun Jam's primary revenue stream is its subscription model, ranging from ₹1,000 to ₹10,000 per month per venue. The subscription fee varies based on factors such as venue location, guest capacity, and other parameters.

Strategically, additional revenue streams are planned for future implementation. Once these streams are introduced, the subscription fee is intended to be reduced to ₹149 per venue per month to accelerate market penetration and drive rapid growth.
